

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME
Companies, Communities and Religious Investors
5th March 2009, All Hallows College, Dublin

9.30 a.m.	Doors open, registration, coffee/tea available
10.00 a.m.	Welcome & introduction to the day	Mark Cumming, Trócaire
10.15 a.m.	'The time is right'	Robert Cochran, Chair of ICCSI
10.30 a.m.	Panel 1: The Impact of Companies in the Global South	Chair: Sr Denise Boyle, Executive Director of Franciscans International
10.35 a.m.	Oil & gas extraction in Nigeria	Fr Patrick Eyinla
10.55 a.m.	Mining in the Philippines	Fr Frank Nally, Columbans
11.15 a.m.	Questions & discussion
11.45	Tea/coffee
12.00	Panel 2: Why Should Faith Communities Engage?	Chair: Katinka C. van Cranenburgh, Secretary General of 3iG
12.05 p.m.	The theological basis for socially responsible investment	Rev Prof Enda McDonagh
12.25 p.m.	Socially responsible investment in a time of global financial crisis	Fr Seamus Finn OMI
12.45 p.m.	Questions & discussion
1.15 p.m.	Lunch
2.00 p.m.	Panel 3: Faith Community Responses: Investment and Engagement Options	Chair: Tony Weekes, Religious Society of Friends
2.10 p.m.	The SRI sector in the Republic	Ian Halstead, L&P Financial Trustees
2.50 p.m.	Oikocredit & mission-consistent social investment	Patrick Hynes
3.05 p.m.	ECCR and its work	Miles Litvinoff / Helen Boothroyd
3.20 p.m.	Questions/discussion
4.05 p.m.	Closing remarks	Mark Cumming
4.15 p.m.	End	